

DISTRIBUTION CLAIM FORM

(Credit Reporting Harm)

Belton v. GE Capital Consumer Lending, Inc., a/k/a GE Money Bank ("GECRB")

Complete this Form only if you are submitting a Distribution Claim. You can submit a Claim Form for a Distribution Claim and Reimbursement Claim if both are applicable to you.

DISTRIBUTION CLAIM INFORMATION

You should complete this Distribution Claim only if:

- (1) You had a GECRB credit card on which you defaulted and the debt was sold to a third-party Debt Buyer;
- (2) You obtained a Chapter 7 bankruptcy discharge on or after January 1, 2008 but before April 1, 2015;

AND

- (3) You have read the representations in the Notice and reproduced immediately below in italics, and you believe you are entitled to monetary compensation.

This lawsuit alleges that Defendant failed to update credit reporting information for credit card accounts sold to third parties where the accountholder's debts were discharged in Chapter 7 bankruptcy after they were sold. It is alleged that as a result, the tradelines continued to reflect that the debts were sold, charged off, and $0 balance, and did not indicate that the debts were included in bankruptcy.

Based on these allegations, Plaintiff claims that Defendant's furnishing practices have harmed consumers by adversely affecting their ability to get credit and their credit scores. Plaintiff also alleges that Defendant's furnishing practices have pressured some consumers into paying those discharged debts because they feared that not doing so would negatively impact the perception of their creditworthiness to prospective creditors and employers.

If the above situation applies to you, you may be eligible for a Distribution Claim payment. You do not need to submit any supporting documentation in order to be eligible for a Distribution Claim payment. Distribution Claim payments will be distributed as a pro rata share of remaining settlement funds after all other Claims are paid and shall not exceed $175.
